

FUNDED BY  National Science Foundation SPONSORED BY  Sovereign Bank

JELLIES SCAVENGER HUNT

Use the graphic panels and text to help complete the Jellies Scavenger Hunt.
If you have a question, please ask an Aquarium educator (they're wearing the teal shirts).

1 A jelly is mainly made up of _____.

2 True or False. Jellies have been around for millions of years.

3 Name 2 places in the world jellies can be found.

4 True or False. All jellies sting.

5 Name 2 groups of sea jellies. _____

6 What eats jellies? _____

7 What do jellies eat? _____

8 How do jellies eat? _____

9 Seasonal jellies may reproduce faster when the temperature of the water is

_____ .

10 Why do jellies thrive in the Gulf of Mexico? _____

11 How can you help keep both the jelly and fish populations healthy?

12 Observe one jelly species and draw it.

A Name of your jelly: _____

B How does it move? _____

C What does it look like? _____
